RE: AMERICAN GENERAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY V.
TELLER FAMILY IRREVOCABLE TRUST VI, ET AL.
2:10-CV-05604-SDW-MCA

Dear Judge Wigenton:

I represent the defendants in the above matter.

The motions to dismiss are pending before the Court. In reviewing some documents that American General produced prior to the Magistrate staying discovery, I discovered a premium check (Exhibit A, Bates-stamped AG000651) which I believe is important on the defendants' motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction, and on the defendants' position that the address in Paterson, New Jersey was fabricated. This check is particularly important if the Court decides to hold a hearing in this matter to determine who placed the Paterson, New Jersey address on the application and when it was placed there.

The premium check produced by American General (Exhibit A) is a check from the Teller Family Irrevocable Trust VII of which Mr. Bernstein is the trustee. The check, in the amount of $53,069, is payable to AIG Life Insurance, not American General.

Most important, however, is the address for the Teller Family Irrevocable Trust VII, reflected in the upper left corner of the check: 6 Siget Court, Monroe, New York, 10950, which is the same town in upstate New York reflected on the letterhead of Simon Weinstock, who runs the agency which provided both policies at issue (Exhibit B, Bates-stamped AG 000652, AG000101).

I respectfully request permission to submit this check to the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth Eilender
